THROUGHOUT U.S.A.
BECAUSE:

It is fitting that at the very time when the internationalists are flooding our country with propaganda, urging churches, colleges, schools, women's clubs, civic organizations, etc. to support the godless, alien controlled United Nations, we pause to reflect and be thankful that we are a free people, and rededicate ourselves to the preservation of a free and unfettered UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

Don't be fooled—the proposed revision of The U. N. Charter is not to improve it, but to bring about the final destruction of the United States as a sovereign nation!

Let the American people awake before it is too late to save The United States of America!

The Dual Government Of The United States

Address by The Honorable William E. Jenner, U. S. S.
Dallas, Texas

It is a favorable argument of the collectivists that foreign policy is something remote and abstract, which can be understood only by experts who have spent years in the precincts of the State Department or on the staffs of certain daily papers. Congressmen, who have not had the benefit of long indoctrination in the mysteries, and you, who do not even breathe the air of Washington, are supposed to sit patiently and wait until the great minds have handed down what you may know.

Americans never accepted such nonsense. Our greatest diplomatic achievements were the work of laymen, who had spent most of their years in private life. In the last few years we have been bewildered and bemused by foreign relations experts in Washington offices, but the moment has come when the American people need to decide what kind of foreign policy they wish to stand for, and then tell our government to follow it.

Sen. William E. Jenner

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER'S COMMITMENT TO THE FREE NATIONS

President Eisenhower's message on defense of the Nationalist stronghold on Formosa will certainly be a landmark in American foreign affairs, but what kind of a landmark it will be is not yet certain.

First let us look at the documents themselves—the message of the President, and the resolution of Congress supporting the President's position. In the words of the message and the resolution, the United States reaffirms its close ties with its loyal ally, the Nationalist government of China, and makes a commitment to defend the Nationalist stronghold with American military power if the Communists carry out their threat to attack it. This statement does not solve all the problems of our foreign policy in the Western Pacific. There is no good reason why it should. We have had twenty years of mismanagement of our activities in Asia. It is not reasonable to ask that any single statement clear away all the confusion. The message is significant because it deals with the most important question. We have announced that we shall tolerate no new retreat in Asia. The Red Chinese will not be permitted to breach the frontiers of the still free world. We make it clear that we shall meet Communist military action with military action, the only argument the Communists understand. We will not start the shooting, but if the Communists choose to start a war, we will finish it.

A foreign policy carefully worked out in many conferences, publicly stated on the authority of the Chief Executive, and supported by Congress and both parties, should be firm as a rock. But I say to you what you know well—that the foreign policy established in the Formosa papers is not firm at all. The fact that it is clearly, stated in a Presidential message, and formally approved by the legislative branch, may mean nothing. It is wholly possible that we shall follow the opposite policy of appeasement of the Communists, surrender our advantage, and a sell-out of our loyal allies in Asia. Why am I so certain that the wishes of the American President, the American Congress, and the American people, may be flouted?

Dual Government

TWO AMERICAN FOREIGN POLICY CENTERS

The reason is —briefly— that we have two lines of authority in foreign policy-making. One is the line of responsibility laid down in our Constitution. The other is a network whose members deliberately disregard our Constitution, our President, and our Congress, and act as a law unto themselves.

The sad fact is that no public document, no formal commitment, no legal mandate, can determine American foreign policy today. Our fluctuating foreign policy is a tug-of-war between these two forces. It is an unsettled question which group will be triumphant in the struggle to shape our nation's destiny.

We have seen again and again in the last two decades, that the foreign policy put forward in our public statements, is not the foreign policy carried out by our government.

This is not because the American government is a two headed monster. It is led by That would be a most inaccurate statement of what has happened.

The reason is that the American government is a two headed monster. It is led two different organizing centers. The never-settled question of which center is to determine our foreign policies has kept us in constant turmoil, and made us look futile and ineffectual before the world.

This conflict between the two heads of our government will not end until one or the other is wholly defeated, uprooted and destroyed.

For years now our government has been pulled in two opposite directions in making its decisions.

ONE CENTER IS PRO-SOVIET

The hearings of the so-called Tydings Committee disclosed clear evidence, in spite of the whitewash, that a powerful and ruthless group were guiding our decisions to the advantage of the Soviet Union. This was not news. Committees of Congress had been making the same charge for years.

The Russell Committee, which investigated the dismissal of General MacArthur, and investigations by the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, showed that a secret faction in our government had worked out its own foreign policy, to suit its own ends, and had by infinite skill, patience and ruthlessness, put it into effect, regardless of the legally established foreign policy set by Congress and our President.

Throughout all of 1951 and 1952 the Congress, especially the Senate, was engaged in a Great Debate to turn the light on this secret foreign policy and destroy its influence. You know the achievements of this secret group.

After the defeat of Japan in World War 2, our foreign policy was to defend and strengthen the Nationalist government of China. But the secret faction in our government was determined we should support the Chinese Reds. In the name of the United States government, they insisted on a "united front" government in China, with the Communist rebels retaining their own armed forces. Our representative gave the Reds a long cease-fire by which they could rest and re-equip their armies, and he set up an embargo on American bullets for the guns of the defenders.

Since 1950, we have had two policies for the Nationalist government on Formosa. Our official policy was to support the legal government and help rearm the Nationalist forces. Congress voted the money again and again as proper for our own defense. But the hidden faction in our government intended that we should disengage ourselves — as the polite phrase goes — from the Nationalists. Their real policy for Formosa paralleled the famous advice of Mr. Lattimore, to let Korea fall but not let it look as if we pushed her. In December, 1949—five years ago—our State Department even issued instructions to its personnel abroad to show no regrets when the government on Formosa fell—according to plan. During the war in Korea, we were ostensibly fighting to defeat the Red Chinese attackers. Our military leaders, our people, and I believe most of the members of the administration, were loyal to that objective. But the invisible group had a different policy. They were determined to prevent military victory over the Reds. They intended to return by force the Chinese prisoners of war who did not wish to go back to Communist China, as they returned the hopeless refugees in Europe after 1945. They intended to leave North Korea a wasteland, occupied by Red troops who could infiltrate South Korea at will and descend at a moments notice on Free Korea, with armies rested and re-equipped.

The secret group won every objective except the return of the pitiful prisoners of war, who were saved by the insistence of Congress and the unremitting determination of our military leaders. The same double purpose can be found in our German policy, in Austria, in Italy, in Greece, and in the tragic surrender of all Eastern Europe to the Soviet Union.

The public policy of the United States, which has in almost all instances denounced conquest and supported the independent nations, has faded away. The secret policy of the faction so friendly to the Soviet Union has in almost every instance been triumphant.

Our public policy of resisting Communism has succeeded only in Turkey, and to a limited extent in Greece. But Secretary of Defense Forrestal, who was determined to block the Communist advance, and who won over President Truman, was driven to an early grave. His hard policy of armed resistance to Communism was replaced by the soft policy of economic aid to Europe. From 1945 to 1952 the power of the Soviet Union spread east and west, until it covered one third of the world and put millions of people in bondage.

The conflict between freedom and slavery was not lost in Asia or Europe. It was lost in Washington, because the little group in our policy-making which favored the Soviet Union was stronger than the people who believed in a pro-American policy.

ITS PROGRAM IS DEFEAT OF THE FORMOSA POLICY

I say to you that the Eisenhower policy, for defense of the perimeter of the free world where it is threatened in the Formosa Straits, will be undermined, eroded, covered up, twisted and made over into, a policy favoring Red China, unless we learn our lesson, and deal with the realities of politics today. Already erosion is apparent. We constantly hear it dinned in our ears that it is all right for us to defend Formosa, but very wrong to defend Quemoy and Matsu. That is as if the UN should say to the United States, "You will reduce tension with the Soviet Union if you give up Alaska, which is nearer the Soviet border than it is to the United States. The Soviet Union says Alaska belongs to it. It does not matter if you need Alaska for radar information, weather information, and early warning of threatened attack. You must give up Alaska to the Soviet rulers so their tension will be lowered." Another form of erosion is hidden in the warnings that Formosa really belongs to Japan, and so it is all right for the U.S. to intervene, but Quemoy and the Tachens belong to China, and therefore, if we defend the coastal islands, we are threatening Red China. That argument omits the minor fact that we are not threatening the Reds. They are threatening us. They can not get the coastal islands except by conquest. They have already tried and failed. It is they who talk of new conquests, not we.

A third form of erosion is the attempt to get a cease-fire in the United Nations. A cease-fire would tell the Nationalists they could never win back their own country. That would be like telling George Washington he could have a cease-fire if he would remain in Valley Forge, but make no effort to reconquer New York or Philadelphia or Yorktown. A cease-fire would free the Red armies for a new attack on Indo-China. A cease-fire would give further recognition to the Red Chinese. It would tell the desperate people on the Mainland they had no hope. It would tell the people of Poland, the Balkans and East Germany, that the United States had no interest in their fate. Other pitfalls are the proposals to establish two Chinas, and sooner or later to put free China under a UN trusteeship. We know where that will lead. After Red China is safely installed in UN as a "peace-loving" nation, it will bring up the demand that Formosa be surrendered to it, and cite the Cairo Declaration as proof we have already agreed to the proposal. Perhaps the most serious threat of all is the recent report that our government intends to ask other members of the UN to help us patrol the Formosa Strait. That would end all pretense of either a pro-American or an anti-Communist policy. It would mean another "victory" like Korea.

THE UNITED NATIONS MAKES NO COMMITMENTS TO FREEDOM

Whatever you make of UN in general, it should be possible to get agreement among all good Americans on a few facts. The Soviet Union is a member of the United Nations. So are her satellites. She has a permanent seat on the Security Council, with the veto power. The UN has no commitments to support freedom. For every obligation to the free nations it has corresponding obligations to the Communist nations. Its staff includes a proportion of open Communists, but it also has a substantial number of secret Communists. The UN recently awarded large damages to some American Fifth Amendment Communists on its staff, who were dismissed only because of hearings held by the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee. The UN is in the middle, see-sawing between the free world and the Red world. The most favorable policy to us which the UN can adopt is neutralism. It is nearer to down-right co-existence. This is the minimum of undisputed fact about UN on which all Americans can agree. The UN is an agent of both Communists, anti-Communist and neutral nations. It has no justification for favoring the side of the free. It has never pretended to do so. Nowhere in the vast outpouring of documents that flows from the UN is there any commitment to freedom. The UN works for "peace" for welfare, for One World. It does not pretend to work for liberty.

PRO-COMMUNISTS CAN NOT BE STOPPED BY PAPERS

Why do I say these proposals to soften up the Formosa resolution—so dangerous to the interests of the United States, so shameful a breach of our moral obligations,—will probably prevail, in spite of the solemn commitment by the President and the Congress to a true American line of action? The reason is this: A group of gangsters cannot be stopped by a written contract. A power group in government cannot be stopped by a state paper. A revolutionary junta, whose purpose is to take over the sovereignty, cannot be stopped by a resolution of Congress. The only answer to a ruthless political action group, determined to destroy the honor of America, is a political action group determined to support American political ideals and defend the men in government who are loyal to them. We talked loosely and superficially about this rival power system. But talk is no longer good enough.

Dual Government

We have called the product the Acheson foreign policy. This dual control of foreign policy was operating in our government as early as 1940 under Harry Hopkins. It operated under Dean Acheson, but it has operated just as effectively since he left. We have no reason whatever to think this group lost its hold because Mr. Acheson resigned. Everything we know indicates the contrary. Who then are the people we are discussing? Where do they operate? On what foundation does their power rest? --

THEY DO NOT OPERATE UNDER CONSTITUTIONAL RESTRAINTS

Part of our confusion comes from the fact that this group does not operate along Constitutional lines at all. Our legal relations staff works in the State Department, under the direction of the President, and within the policy framework laid down by Congress. But the extra-legal foreign policy making conspiracy operates all over the lot. Like a cancer growing wild, it ignores all the restraints inherent in a healthy well balanced organism. The collectivist machine operates, in part, in the State Department, in part, in the White House Secretariat, in the super-Cabinet agencies of national defense, in the Foreign Operations Administration, in the CIA. But a substantial part of it operates outside government. It may be found in the press, in radio, in television, in the parties, in the colleges, in labor unions, in business, in the United Nations—and in the churches. The important point is that all parts of this political machine are coordinated. They operate, as one, from some control tower we cannot see. We have tried to blame our Presidents, the State Department, the party in power, for our failures in foreign policy.

I am convinced we shall never recognize the octopus we have to fight until we realize it is not part of the legally established government at all. It is a revolutionary junta, operating within our own government, and through our government, but not for our government, our Constitution, or our nation. What keeps this cabal in power, under Democratic and under Republican administrations?

Why has it been impossible for three Presidents and many Congresses to demolish it? That is a long story but it can be summarized in three p's, pressure groups, propaganda and pelf—that is, big spending.

You are going to ask me whether this group is entirely Communist directed. I doubt if our problem is that simple. This group has, we know, included Communist Party members and Communist agents, and may still include them. It includes Socialists, collectivist one-worlders, ambitious individuals greedy for power, willing in time of trouble to advance themselves at the expense of their country. It includes trimmers and collaborators who believe they can make deals with the unscrupulous, who think they can get votes or power or contracts or publicity, from the Communists, and then cast aside their temptors. It includes the innocent and the simple-minded, who love big words that have no meaning.

I do not know what proportion of these people are Communists, but I know for certain that everything they do is of benefit to Moscow, because it is directed by Moscow. The Soviet leaders are the most skilful people in the world today in the new political arts of propaganda, brainwashing, camouflage, and what I have called revolution by assembly line. We can save ourselves a great deal of time and thought if we realize one fact. As conditions are today, the Communist world revolution will control and use all the bits and pieces of collectivism, one-worldism, centralism, internationalism and all their variations. None of them will be helpful to us. How are we going to redress the balance, and give strength to the vast majority of true Americans, so they can manage their own government? We must give up our reliance on legalism. The pro-Communist, internationalist, collectivist foreign policy, with its favoritism for everything which helps the Soviet Union, has triumphed again and again because of the energy, intelligence, and determination of a self-directed elite. We fight this advancing army with statements, promises, papers and laws.

We will never win until we oppose the collectivist political faction with resolute political action by men determined to put America first.

The pro-American group within our government today is more numerous, abler, stronger, more devoted, than the collectivist group. It is supported by the vast bulk of the voters of both parties. Its weakness is that it is trying to win a debate under the rules of American political life. It should be fighting for victory over opponents who know no rules.

PRO-AMERICANS ARE UNDER ATTACK

We must know first the names of leaders of the pro-American group.

You can find out who leads the American branch of our two-headed government by the enemies they have made.

The left wing-press and the collectivist collaborators are always ready to attack Secretary of Defense Wilson. They center much of their fire on Admiral Radford.

Kruschev, speaking in Red China last fall, violently denounced Admiral Radford, and bracketed him with the Communist hated Senators Knowland and McCarthy. Isn't it significant that left-wing American columnists today follow exactly the line spoken by Kruschev four or five months ago? You remember this bloc did not exactly like MacArthur. They denounce the Senators who support the free nations of Asia. They criticize President Eisenhower if he dares cooperate with Republicans they have not recommended. The collectivist press has not yet started to attack Herbert Hoover, Jr., who is now our Under-Secretary of State, but it is a rule of theirs never to call attention to good people on our side until they have to. Assistant Secretary of State Robertson has escaped their attack for the same reason.

Today pro-American officials have not one moment's security. They are constantly under attack, mostly by moves they cannot see. If you need a blueprint of how the collectivists keep dangerous anti-Communists under constant pressure, I suggest you analyze the series of moves which they employed to destroy Senator McCarthy, from the day in Wheeling, West Virginia, when he tore down the curtain of censorship hiding the Communists in our State Department. I tell you just such a subtle, complex, perfectly timed, secret campaign is already under way against the men who dared advise the President to resist the Chinese Reds. The strategy is worked out, and broken into steps. It will arise, "spontaneously," from all directions. It will be echoed in all quarters of the world. The "line" is already apparent in the inspired British press and that of the Continent.

ONLY POLITICAL ACTION WILL SAVE US

The bloc which intends to destroy the true Americans in our government is in action. Is there a bloc to defend the true Americans and drive out the secret enemies of our country? I am not urging you to help our friends in Asia. I am urging you to prevent the humiliating defeat of our country and everything it stands for.

You ask who are the leaders of the collectivist bloc. Who is taking Acheson's place today? I can guess but I have no legal proof. Remember, the physician can not have proof that his diagnosis is correct. He can get that only from the autopsy.

But I want to point out one significant fact. We are never going to have legal proof, about the most dangerous enemies of our country. We will not be able to use what proof we have, when the culprit is close to the top. Attorney-General Brownell and J. Edgar Hoover told us how FBI reports on Harry White, for example, were sent to President Truman, and his Cabinet officers again and again. We know President Truman and his top Cabinet members opposed promoting Harry White to the International Monetary Fund, in view of the record. But he was promoted. Who could tell the President of the United States he must promote a known Communist collaborator? I have been told who was the person responsible but I have so far no proof.

Shall we sit and do nothing, when we have political proof that some of our officials are selling out our country, merely because we have no affidavits of what was said in their secret conferences?

One thing we know. The Communists and their collaborators push their best men close to the top, because that is the safest place to be. No one could remove Dr. John from his job in Germany though more than one person knew he was disloyal. We may get the little traitors by assembling legal proof. We will never get the big ones, except by political counter-attack. The pro-Communist attack on our political institutions is political action. We must use political action to remove from public life every man or woman who is beholden to the Communists, or committed to a philosophy alien to our Constitution. We cannot wait until we see a party card.

POLITICAL ACTION WILL BRING ABOUT AN AMERICAN POLICY

We must also know American policy. It is all very well to know Communist policy, but it is more important to know American policy. We must have a clear American foreign policy and a clear American military policy before we enter any conference with other nations in the United Nations or outside. There is no harm in conferring with foreign governments, inside or outside of UN, so long as we put America first.

Nationalist China has perhaps half a million men eager to fight for their independence. Korea has courageous soldiers ready to fight on their own soil.

Indo-China can provide others, with American training. Altogether Free Asia can furnish millions of troops eager to guard their sectors of the frontier of freedom.

Can we guarantee that no one in our State Department or FOA will hamstring

the funds Congress has voted to arm them? Can we guarantee that agencies of our government will not conspire to undermine Chiang Kai-Shek or Syngman Rhee or Viet Nam?

If the great brains, who have abandoned news-paper work for pontificating, sow planned confusion or attack our pro-American leaders, are we ready to meet them with better newspapers, better writers, better radio and television programs, or if necessary, by mimeograph machines in every block? The Chinese Communists have started four wars in Asia in the last ten years, with no penalty. The Red Chinese know they can never put down the Chinese on the Mainland, while the Chinese on Formosa have an army. They will never be satisfied with less than total destruction of that army. They must destroy the armies of Korea and of Indo-China. They count on the aid of their supporters in our councils.

Support of the armies of Free Asia is American policy, as destruction of these armies is Communist policy.

The Communist regimes are weak and their people rebellious. The only strength they possess is the faction within the American government which puts the Soviet Union first. We must deal first with our own dual government. If we will organize political action, to support the pro-Americans in our government and in public life, the world conflict will soon be over. We can win true peace for all the world if we will gird ourselves to defeat the enemy within.

Scallions To The U N

by

Marilyn R. Allen

A child of Hiss: a curse, a fraud!
Conceived in sin, hypocrisy,
Pretending peace and brotherhood,
But planning war on all mankind.

A Nemesis to Righteousness!
Polluting soil of free-born men,
Who long ago set Freedom's mould:
Now are deceived by anti-Christ.

Pandora's box was opened when
We chose this alien One World rule:
At risk of birthright, sovereignty
In hands of those who love us not.

Unless we hasten to regain
Our God-appointed destiny,
We shall be lost in ocean deep
Of common anonymity.

Arise Americans: cast out this curst
Regime of sin from sacred soil so blest!

UNITED STATES DAY

United States to remind themselves and others, of the great heritage which we are enjoying in this WONDERFUL LAND, a heritage resulting from a Constitution and Bill of Rights, based upon the teaching of the world's greatest religious leader and experiment in self government, which has given us, the people of the United States the highest standard of living, the most freedom, and the best opportunity for the pursuit of happiness, health, culture and prosperity ever enjoyed by any people, at any time, anywhere in recorded history.

These blessings and benefits are in grave danger of being lost to a super world government to which we are urged to surrender the control of all our resources and our constitutional right to govern ourselves.

Men and women in the highest places of honor have fallen prey to the propaganda of the internationalists. Well meaning churchmen and educators have been hoodwinked into joining forces with the enemies of our National Independence.

National spirit and individual initiative have been ridiculed and decried. Our forbears were religiously and politically individualists with national spirit.

If we are to survive as a free people we must retain respect for individualism, rekindle the national spirit, and reject the ideology of collectivism and the welfare state, and any and all forms of world government.

Let us regain, preserve and pass on to our children, this heritage, the right to live, to worship, to enjoy all the blessings of Free Men and Women, by reaffirming our allegiance to the principals of our CONSTITUTION and BILL OF RIGHTS

Let us determine to prevent any encroachment on our right to govern ourselves by taking a resolute stand against the surrender of any of our rights as citizens of the United States, to any World Government or Super State. And let us also guard against the terrible danger of the substitution of government by treaty, or executive agreements, for government by our own laws under the Constitution of the United States.

We have paid a terrific price for our global meddling. In Korea, alone, where our young men were, for the first time in our history as a nation, forced to fight under an alien flag, we suffered approximately 150,000 casualties. Under control of the United Nations military intelligence, which under the U. N. Charter and the connivance of Alger Hiss, will be permanently in the hands of the Soviet Union, our men were denied the victory, their great commander recalled, and they were left in a death trap.

WE ARE STILL PAYING AND
THE BELLS STILL TOLL
OUR MEN ARE STILL LANGUISHING IN FOREIGN PRISONS!

What can patriotic American citizens do?

We favor friendly relations and cooperation with all peaceful nations, but since "This is the best and freest government, the most equal in its rights, the most humane in its measures, the most just in its decisions, that the sun of heaven has ever shown upon," we believe: Any change in our Constitution should be reserved to the people of the United States alone. Our central purpose, therefore, is to preserve intact the sovereignty of the United States as an independent nation under the Constitution without limitation by treaty or Executive Agreements, or Super Government.

Can this be done?

The answer rests with the patriotic men and women and young people throughout the United States of America. Concerted action alone can win.
